I am proud that I always had great wishes and I have covered most of them . I am honored to be graduated at law and work in Iranian legal system as an adviser, as well as to defend people whose rights have been violated and defend the right and fight against the void and tyranny. I chose Democracy and Human Rights for my higher education field and established my Arbitration Institute with this same perspective and I hope I can help more people in my life and be successful in this highly valuable way.
